AUDIT REPORT AND DECLARATION INSTRUCTIONS

Section 12104(i) of the Check Sellers, Bill Payers and Proraters Law provides that a nonprofit community service organization shall submit to the Commissioner an audit report containing audited financial statements covering the calendar year or, if the organization has an established fiscal year, then for that fiscal year, within 120 days after the close of the calendar or fiscal year. Section 12104(j) provides that a nonprofit community service organization shall submit a declaration executed by an official authorized by the board of the organization stating that the organization complies with the provisions of Section 12104 of the California Financial Code. This form is to provide the audit report and the required declaration to the Commissioner.

Item 1. Provide the name of the nonprofit community service organization claiming the exemption from licensure. If you are filing an amended notice and your name has changed since your original notice was filed, provide your new name on the first line and your previous name on the second line.

Item 2. Provide the address of the organization. If you have a different mailing address, provide the mailing address on the second line.

Item 3. Provide the organization’s area code and telephone number.

Item 4. Provide the name of a contact person within the organization.

Item B. Select the appropriate notification by marking within the parentheses. If the audit report covers the calendar year, insert the calendar year that the audit report covers. If the audit report covers the fiscal year, insert both the beginning and ending dates of the fiscal year. Be sure to include the year in the date provided.

Item C. On the line above the applicable description, provide the date of signature, the name of the authorized individual signing the declaration on behalf of the organization, the place where the declaration was signed (city and state), the signature of the individual, and the title of the individual.

NOTICES REQUIRED UNDER STATE AND FEDERAL LAW I.

INFORMATION PRACTICES ACT OF 1977
(California Civil Code Section 1798.17)

(a) The Department of Financial Protection and Innovation of the State of California, is requesting the information specified in the application for registration, qualification, a certificate or a license.

(b) The Deputy Commissioner, Office of Management and Budget, 2101 Arena Blvd, Sacramento, California, 95834, telephone (916) 445-5541, is responsible for the system of records and shall, upon request, inform individuals regarding the location of the Department of Financial Protection and Innovations' records and the categories of persons who use the information in the records.

(c) The records are maintained pursuant to one or more of the following laws: the Corporate Securities Law of 1968 (Corporations Code Section 25000, et seq.); the Capital Access Company Law (Corporations Code Section 28000, et seq.); the Bucket Shop Law (Corporations Code Section 29000, et seq.); the California Commodity Law of 1990 (Corporations Code Section 29500, et seq.); the Franchise Investment Law (Corporations Code Section 31000, et seq.); the Check Sellers, Bill Payers and Proraters Law (Financial Code Section 12000, et seq.); the California Deferred Deposit Transaction Law (Financial Code Section 23000, et seq.); the Escrow Law (Financial Code Section 17000, et seq.); the California Financing Law (Financial Code Section 22000, et seq.); the Securities Depository Law (Financial Code Section 30000, et seq.); and the California Residential Mortgage Lending Act (Financial Code Section 50000, et seq.).

(d) The submission of all items of information is mandatory unless otherwise noted. Section 17520 of the Family Code requires the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation to collect social security numbers from all applicants. The Privacy Act of 1974 prohibits a state agency from denying an individual any right, benefit or privilege provided by law because of the individual's refusal to disclose the individual's social security account number.

(e) Failure to provide all or any part of the information requested may preclude the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation from approving the application.

(f) The principal purposes within the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation for which the information is to be used are to determine whether (1) a license, qualification, registration, certificate or other authority should be accepted, granted, approved, denied, revoked or limited in any way; (2) business entities or individuals licensed or otherwise regulated by the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation are conducting themselves in accordance with applicable laws; and/or (3) laws administered by the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation are being or have been violated and whether administrative action, civil action, or referral to appropriate federal, state or local law enforcement or regulatory agencies, or to a self-regulatory organization, as authorized by law, is appropriate.

(g) Any known or foreseeable disclosures of the information pursuant to subdivision (e) or (f) of Civil Code Section 1798.24 may include transfers to other federal, state, or local law enforcement or regulatory agencies, or to a self-regulatory organization, as authorized by law.

(h) Subject to certain exceptions or exemptions, the Information Practices Act grants an individual a right of access to personal information concerning the requesting individual that is maintained by the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation.

II. FEDERAL PRIVACY ACT OF 1974 (Public Law 93-579)

In accordance with Section 7 of the Privacy Act of 1974 (found at 5 U.S.C. § 552a note (Disclosure of Social Security Number)), the following is information on whether the disclosure of a social security account number is voluntary or mandatory, by what statutory or other authority such number is solicited, and what uses will be made of it.

(1) Section 17520 of the Family Code requires the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation to collect social security numbers from all applicants. The Privacy Act of 1974 prohibits a state agency from denying an individual any right, benefit or privilege provided by law because of the individual's refusal to disclose the individual's social security account number.

(2) A social security account number is solicited pursuant to one or more of the following authorities: the Corporate Securities Law of 1968 (Corporations Code Section 25000, et seq.); the Capital Access Company Law (Corporations Code Section 28000, et seq.); the Bucket Shop Law (Corporations Code Section 29000, et seq.); the California Commodity Law of 1990 (Corporations Code Section 29500, et seq.); the Franchise Investment Law (Corporations Code Section 31000, et seq.); the Check Sellers, Bill Payers and Proraters Law (Financial Code Section 12000, et seq.); the Escrow Law (Financial Code Section 17000, et seq.); the California Financing Law (Financial Code Section 22000, et seq.); the California Deferred Deposit Transaction Law (Financial Code Section 23000, et seq.); the Securities Depository Law (Financial Code Section 30000, et seq.); the California Residential Mortgage Lending Act (Financial Code Section 50000, et seq.); and the regulations adopted thereunder, as well as Section 17520 of the Family Code.

(3) For all persons disclosing a social security account number, the number may be used, in addition to other information provided, to conduct a background investigation of the individual by the Department of Justice's Identification and Information Branch or by other federal, state or local law enforcement agencies, or a self-regulatory organization, as authorized by law. The social security number may also be used to respond to requests for this number made by child support agencies.

III. THE PERMIT REFORM ACT OF 1981 (Government Code Section 15378(b))

The Department of Financial Protection and Innovation has established time periods for processing an application from the receipt of the initial application to the final application decision. An applicant may appeal directly to the Business, Transportation & Housing Agency for a timely resolution of any dispute arising from a violation of the time periods. Information regarding the appeal process may be found in Title 21, Chapter 6 of the California Code of Regulations, entitled Regulations Relating to Appeals Under the Permit Reform Act of 1981.
