Dear Dept. of Financial Protection and Innovation,

As a Californian citizen concerned about financial freedom, I urge you not to proceed with the proposed rule change – PRO 01-21 – that would introduce mandatory fees on Earned Wage Access (EWA). This service provides much-needed flexibility for working families experiencing cash flow issues or unexpected expenses; however, if imposed with fees, it may no longer be affordable or accessible – thus diminishing its effectiveness as a financial tool while undermining Californians' rights over their own earnings. Please do not proceed with this proposal and help protect our right to financial independence!
