VIOLATIONS OF THE CSL

A. Respondents Willfully Failed to Comply with Custody Safeguarding Procedures

15. Section 25235 provides, in part, that it is unlawful for an investment adviser to engage in any act, practice, or course of business which is fraudulent, deceptive, or manipulative.

16. 10 C.C.R. 260.237 provides in part, that it is unlawful and deemed to be a fraudulent, deceptive, or manipulative act, practice or course of business within the meaning of Section 25235 of the Code for an investment adviser to have custody of client funds or securities unless the investment adviser adhere to pertinent safeguarding procedures.

20 17. Pursuant to 10 C.C.R. 260.237(b)(3), when an investment adviser directly deducts fees from client accounts, that adviser is considered to have custody of those client funds and securities. However, an investment adviser acting in this capacity will be eligible for a waiver of the heightened custody requirements of 10 C.C.R. 260.237(a)(6)-(7), 260.241.2, and 260.237.2 if the adviser adheres to pertinent safeguarding procedures.

25 18. During the period of January 1, 2018, through January 31, 2019, Respondents directly 26 deducted fees from client accounts, however, Respondents failed to adhere to the requisite 27 safeguarding procedures, which could have waived the heightened custody requirements of 10 C.C.R. 28 ///

260.237(a)(6)-(7), 260.241.2, and 260.237.2. Therefore, Respondents were required to comply with the heightened custody requirements of 10 C.C.R. 260.237(a)(6)-(7), 260.241.2, and 260.237.2.

19. Respondents did not adhere to the heightened safeguarding procedures for having custody of client funds and securities, which included having an annual unscheduled examination performed by an independent auditor, during fiscal years 2018 and 2019, in violation of section 25235(d) and 10 C.C.R. 260.237.

B. Respondents Willfully Failed to Meet the Minimum Net Worth Requirements

20. Section 25237 provides, in part, that licensed investment advisers who have custody of client securities or funds or discretionary authority (power of attorney to execute transactions) over client funds or securities, shall be subject to a minimum capital requirement

21. 10 C.C.R. 260.237.2 provides in part, that every investment adviser who has custody of client funds or securities shall maintain at all times a minimum net worth of $35,000, and every investment adviser who has discretionary authority over client funds or securities but does not have custody of client funds or securities, shall maintain at all times a minimum net worth of $10,000. Furthermore, as a condition of the right to continue to transact business in this state, every investment adviser shall, by the close of business on the next business day following the discovery that the investment adviser's net worth is less than the minimum required, notify the Commissioner that the investment adviser's net worth is less than the minimum required.

19 22. During the 2019 Examination, Respondents had custody of client funds and securities 20 and therefore it is required to always maintain a minimum net worth of $35,000.00. However, due to the Magister's failure to maintain books and records and accounting records, Magister's minimum 22 financial requirement could not be determined during the 2019 Examination. The Department's 23 Examiner calculated the net worth with the information provided and determined that, during the 24 period of January 1, 2018, through at least December 31, 2020, Magister's net worth failed to exceed 25 $2,889.85, in violation of 10 C.C.R. 260.237.2(a). In addition, pursuant to 10 C.C.R. 260.237.2(j), Magister is deemed to have discovered that its net worth is less than the minimum net worth 26 requirement since at least, January 1, 2018. In addition, Magister failed to notify the Commissioner 28 ///

that its net worth was less than the minimum financial requirement, since at least January 1, 2018, in violation of 10 C.C.R. 260.237.2(c).

23. On April 30, 2019, the Commissioner issued a RER, which provided the Respondents with notice of the Respondents' failure to comply with section 25237 and 10 C.C.R. 260.237.2.

24. Respondents continued to fail to file to maintain a net worth, not less than the minimum net worth requirement, from April 30, 2019 through February 28, 2025, in violation of section 25237 and 10 C.C.R. 260.237.2.
