TO: AMERICAN NATIONWIDE MORTGAGE COMPANY, INC.

The Commissioner of Business Oversight finds that:

American Nationwide Mortgage Company, Inc. (American Nationwide) provided California borrowers with per diem interest disclosure forms that included blank amounts where American Nationwide should have listed interest charges, and American Nationwide had borrowers sign those forms. This violates Financial Code section 50204, subdivision (e), which provides that a licensee may not obtain or induce an agreement or other instrument in which blanks are left to be filled after execution.

NOW, BASED ON THE FOREGOING, AND GOOD CAUSE APPEARING, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED under the provisions of California Financial Code section 50321 that American Nationwide Mortgage Company, Inc. shall immediately discontinue the violations set forth above.
