- B. Scott P. Dillingham is now the only owner of Respondents and is authorized to enter into this Agreement on behalf of Respondents.
- C. Respondents hold four licenses (File numbers 100-1476, 100-1477, 100-2392 and 100-2383) from the Commissioner under the California Deferred Deposit Transaction Law (“CDDTL”) pursuant to California Financial Code sections 23005, 23008 and 23009.
- D. On October 30, 2007, the Commissioner issued to Respondents a Desist and Refrain Order, Citations and Order To Void Deferred Deposit Transactions to Respondents for violations of California Financial Code 23000 et seq., served to Respondents on November 21, 2007. On February 27, 2008, the Commissioner prepared and served a Accusation To Suspend License and Statement In Support Of Desist And Refrain Order, Citations And Order To Void Deferred Deposit Transactions. The foregoing documents will hereinafter be referred to as “Administrative Actions”). Copies of the Administrative Actions are attached and incorporated herein as Exhibit 1.
- E. It is the intention of the parties to resolve this matter without the necessity of an administrative hearing or other litigation.

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, and the terms and conditions set forth herein, the parties agree as follows:

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Purpose. The purpose of this Agreement is to resolve the Administrative Actions expeditiously, avoid the expense of a hearing, and possible further court proceedings.
2. Waiver of Hearing Rights. Respondents acknowledge their right to a hearing under the CDDTL in connection with the Administrative Actions and hereby waive that right to a hearing, and to any reconsideration, appeal, or other right to review which may be afforded pursuant to the CDDTL, the California Administrative Procedure Act (“APA”), the California Code of Civil Procedure, or any other provision of law, and by waiving such rights, consent to the agreement becoming final.
3. Independent Legal Advice. Each of the Parties represents, warrants, and agrees that it has received or been advised to seek independent legal advice from its attorneys with respect to the advisability of executing this Agreement. Respondents acknowledge that they consulted with attorney Frederick M. Ray, prior to entering into this Agreement.
4. Admissions. Respondents admit the FACTS stated below Roman numeral I. in the Accusation To Suspend License and Statement in Support of Desist and Refrain Order, Citations and Order To Void Deferred Deposit Transactions to Respondents (Administrative Actions) solely for the limited purposes of this Agreement and any future proceeding(s) that may be initiated by or brought before the Commissioner or other agencies against Respondents.
5. Revocation. Respondents hereby voluntarily agree and consent to the issuance by the Commissioner of an Order Revoking Respondents’ CDDTL (file number 100-2393) pursuant to Financial Code section 23052 (“Revocation”). The revocation precludes Respondents from engaging in any CDDTL activities including any with existing clients after revocation. This revocation does not preclude Respondents from engaging in pure collection activities that permit: (1) receipt of cash from customers for existing transactions entered into before April 22, 2008, (2) forwarding any checks received from Respondents’ clients to Respondents’ bank for deposit relating to transactions entered into before April 22, 2008, (3) responding to regulatory inquiries from the Department of Corporations or other agencies, (4) making refunds described in paragraph 6, below and (5) otherwise responding to customer inquiries concerning existing transactions. A copy of the Revocation is attached as Exhibit 2 and incorporated herein by reference.
6. Voiding of Transactions. Respondents hereby agree to void the transactions described in the Administrative Actions and to immediately refund all amounts to Respondents’ clients that they paid to the county offices of the District Attorneys. Respondents agree to refund at least $13,989.83 plus indirect fees charged for their transactions through the DA’s office should be reimbursed to compensate consumers and ameliorate the damages suffered by them. It is estimated that the total amount to be refunded is $15,257.83. Any amounts remaining unclaimed by clients on August 31, 2008, shall escheat to the State of California.

7. Citations. Respondents hereby agree to pay to the Commissioner one hundred thousand Dollars ($100,000) for the Citations (“Citation Payments”). The first citation payment in the amount of forty-five thousand dollars ($45,000) is due on April 22, 2008. The second and final citation payment in the amount of fifty-five thousand dollars ($55,000) is due by June 6, 2008. If payment is not received by June 6, 2008, then the total amount ($422,500) of Citations ordered in Exhibit 1 are immediately due and payable to the Department. Respondents’ Citation Payments shall be payable to the California Department of Corporations and delivered to the Department of Corporations’ San Francisco Office to the attention of the Complainant’s Enforcement counsel, Joan Kerst, who will provide a document to Respondents that acknowledges the Department’s receipt of the Payments.

8. Future Actions by the Commissioner. The Commissioner reserves the right to bring any future actions against Respondents or any of their partners, owners, employees or successors of Respondents for any and all unknown or future violations of the CDDTL. This Agreement shall not serve to exculpate Respondents or any of the partners, owners, employees or successors of Respondents from liability for any and all unknown or future violations of the CDDTL. If it is found, after the execution of this Agreement that Respondents have at any time violated any of the statutes and/or rules set forth in the CDDTL or Agreement, the Commissioner reserves the right to take further action against Respondents, including but not limited to, imposing penalties and requesting restitution of all CDDTL transactions originated in breach of this Agreement. Respondents acknowledge and agree that the Revocation provided for above in paragraph 5 shall not be the exclusive remedy available to the Commissioner in pursuing future violations but may be sought and employed in addition to any other remedy available pursuant to the CDDTL.

9. Failure to Make Consumer Refunds. Respondents acknowledge that during the month of April 2008 they will offer to make refunds to the consumers referred to in paragraph six (6) above, and that failure to do so shall be a breach of this Agreement and shall be cause for the Commissioner to revoke or deny, respectively, any Department of Corporations license or any pending application of Respondents and any company owned or controlled by Scott P. Dillingham, his successors and assigns, by whatever names they might be known. Respondents waive any notice and hearing rights to contest such revocations or denials, which may be afforded under the Financial Code, the APA, the Code of Civil Procedure, or any other legal provisions.

10. Settlement Agreement Coverage. The parties hereby acknowledge and agree that this Agreement is intended to constitute a full, final and complete resolution of this Administrative Actions. The parties further acknowledge and agree that nothing contained in this Agreement shall operate to limit the Commissioner’s ability to assist any other agencies with any prosecution, administrative, civil or criminal, brought by any such agency against Respondents based upon any of the activities alleged in this matter or otherwise. This Agreement shall not become effective until signed by Respondents and delivered by all parties. Each of the parties represents, warrants, and agrees that in executing this Agreement it has relied solely on the statements set forth herein and the advice of its own counsel and has placed no reliance on any statement, representation, or promise of any other party, or any other person or entity not expressly set forth herein, or upon the failure of any party or any other person or entity to make any statement, representation or disclosure of anything whatsoever. The parties have included this clause: (1) to preclude any claim that any party was in any way fraudulently induced to execute this Agreement; and (2) to preclude the introduction of parol evidence to vary, interpret, supplement, or contradict the terms of this Agreement.

11. Full Integration. This Agreement, including the attached Administrative Actions is the final written expression and the complete and exclusive statement of all the agreements, conditions, promises, representations, and covenants between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supercedes all prior or contemporaneous agreements, negotiations, representations, understandings, and discussions between and among the parties, their respective representatives, and any other person or entity.

12. No Presumption From Drafting. In that the parties have had the opportunity to draft, review and edit the language of this Agreement, no presumption for or against any party arising out of drafting all or any part of this Agreement will be applied in any action relating to, connected to, or involving this Agreement. Accordingly, the parties waive the benefit of California Civil Code section 1654 and any successor or amended statute, providing that in cases of uncertainty, language of a contract should be interpreted most strongly against the party who caused the uncertainty to exist.

13. Effective Date. This Agreement shall not become effective until signed by Respondents and delivered by all parties. The Commissioner shall file this Agreement with the Office of Administrative Hearings after execution by the parties.

14. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counter-parts by the Parties and when each Party has signed and delivered at least one such counterpart to the other Party, each counterpart shall be deemed an original and taken together shall constitute one and the same Agreement.

15. Modifications and Qualified Integration. No amendment, change or modification of this Agreement shall be valid or binding to any extent unless it is in writing and signed by all of the parties affected by it.

16. Headings and Governing Law. The headings to the paragraphs of this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and will not be deemed a part hereof or affect the construction or interpretation of the provisions hereof. This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with and governed by California law.

17. Authority For Settlement. Each Respondents covenant that they possess all necessary capacity and authority to sign and enter into this Agreement. Each Party warrants and represents that such Party is fully entitled and duly authorized to enter into and deliver this Agreement. In particular, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Party warrants and represents that it is fully entitled to enter into the covenants, and undertake the obligations set forth herein.

18. Public Record. Respondents acknowledge that this Agreement is a public record.

19. Voluntary Agreement. The Parties each represent and acknowledge that he, she or it is executing this Agreement completely voluntarily and without any duress or undue influence of any kind from any source.

20. Notices. Notice shall be provided to each party at the following addresses:
