v.	)

HOWARD MARK GERBER,	)
Respondent.	)

Complainant, the Commissioner of Business Oversight (“Commissioner”) is informed and believes, and based upon such information and belief, alleges and charges Respondent Howard Mark Gerber (“Gerber”) as follows:

I.
INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to Financial Code sections 50141 and 50327, the Commissioner seeks to deny the issuance of a mortgage loan originator (“MLO”) license to Gerber on the grounds that: 1) the applicant has not demonstrated such financial responsibility, character, and general fitness as to command the confidence of the community and warrant a determination that he will operate honestly, fairly, and efficiently as a MLO; and 2) the applicant made an untrue statement on his MLO license application with the intent to impede, obstruct, or influence the administration or

1 enforcement of the law governing MLOs in California.

2 II.

3 THE APPLICATION

4 On or about June 20, 2014, Gerber filed an application for a MLO license with the
5 Commissioner (file number 694065; hereinafter “application”) pursuant to the California
6 Residential Mortgage Lending Act (“CRMLA,” Fin. Code § 50000 et seq.); in particular,
7 Financial Code section 50140. The application was submitted through the National Mortgage
8 Licensing System (“NMLS”) on the Form MU4.

9 At all relevant times since the filing of his application, Gerber has been employed and 10 sponsored by JAC Financial Inc., which is licensed under the CRMLA, license number 4150064.

11 On his original license application, Gerber answered “no” to Question (K)(5), “Has any 12 State or federal regulatory agency or foreign financial authority or self-regulatory organization
13 (SRO) ever...revoked your registration or license?” However, a subsequent review of public 14 records available from the California Bureau of Real Estate (“BRE,” formerly the Department of 15 Real Estate or “DRE”) revealed that the BRE had previously taken regulatory action against 16 Gerber that resulted in the revocation of his license and licensing rights.

17 The Commissioner instructed Gerber to amend his response to Question (K)(5) and 18 provide an explanation and supporting documentation. Gerber filed an amended MU4 on August 19 1, 2014, changing his answer to Question (K)(5) and providing an explanation; however, he still 20 did not provide any supporting documentation.

21 The Commissioner again instructed Gerber to provide supporting documentation and 22 provide a more detailed explanation. On August 25, 2014, Gerber provided documentation which 23 revealed that on March 4, 1997, the BRE had revoked his license and licensing rights for 24 employing and compensating unlicensed individuals to perform acts that required a real estate
25 broker or salesperson license, for not adequately managing his company’s trust fund activities, for 26 collecting advanced fees without using approved materials, and for failing to provide borrowers
27 with required mortgage loan disclosure statements.

28 California Financial Code section 50512(b) provides:

1 It is unlawful for any person to knowingly make an untrue statement to the 2 commissioner during the course of licensing, investigation, or examination, with 3 the intent to impede, obstruct, or influence the administration or enforcement of 4 any provision of this division.

5 III.

6 CONCLUSION

7 The Commissioner finds, by reason of the foregoing, that Gerber has made an untrue
8 statement to the Commissioner during the course of licensing with the intent to impede, obstruct,
9 or influence the administration or enforcement of the provisions of the CRMLA.

10 Further, the Commissioner finds that in light of the revocation of Gerber's BRE license
11 and licensing rights and the bases for that revocation, Gerber has not demonstrated such financial 12 responsibility, character, and general fitness as to command the confidence of the community and 13 warrant a determination that he will operate honestly, fairly, and efficiently within the purposes of 14 the CRMLA.

15 California Financial Code section 50327(a) provides, in pertinent part:

16 The commissioner may, after notice and a reasonable opportunity to be heard,
17 deny, decline to renew, suspend, or revoke any license if the commissioner finds 18 that...the licensee has violated any provision of this division or any rule or order of 19 the commissioner thereunder.

20 California Financial Code section 50141(a) provides, in pertinent part:

21 The commissioner shall deny an application for a mortgage loan originator license
22 unless the commissioner makes at a minimum the following findings:

23 ...

24 (3) The applicant has demonstrated such financial responsibility, character, and 25 general fitness as to command the confidence of the community and to warrant a 26 determination that the mortgage loan originator will operate honestly, fairly, and 27 efficiently within the purposes of this division.

28 The findings set forth above constitute grounds under Financial Code sections 50141 and 50327 to deny the issuance of a MLO license to Gerber.

THEREFORE, the Commissioner asserts that she is justified under California Financial Code sections 50141 and 50327 in denying the issuance of a mortgage loan originator license to Howard Mark Gerber.
