2. Sunset One was personally served with the Order on January 26, 2015.

3. The Order directed Sunset One to “immediately discontinue acceptance of any new escrow or joint control business” and stated that “[the] order is to remain in full force and effect until further order of the Commissioner.”

4. Sunset One requested a priority hearing on the Order and the matter was heard by the Office of the Administrative Hearings on March 4, 2015. The administrative law judge’s proposed decision in the case is to be issued on or before April 3, 2015. The Order remains in effect pending the outcome of the administrative hearing.

5. On or about March 10, 2015, the Department received information that Sunset One had continued to accept new escrow business. On or about March 11, 2015, the Commissioner commenced a special examination of Sunset One to determine if Sunset One had accepted any new business in violation of the Order. The special examination discovered that Sunset One had opened approximately 188 new escrows from January 27, 2015 (the day after the Order was issued and served on Lloyd) to March 11, 2015.

6. Financial Code section 17606 provides as follows:

The commissioner may immediately revoke by order the escrow agent's license if the licensee fails to comply with any order, unless the escrow agent secures a court order restraining the enforcement of the commissioner's revocation order.

NOW, BASED UPON THE FOREGING, AND GOOD CAUSE APPEARING
THEREFORE, it is hereby ORDERED, under the provisions of Financial Code section 17606, that the escrow agent’s license of Sunset One Escrow, Inc. is revoked.
