1	SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT
2	This Settlement Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into between Transpacific Currency
3	Services, Inc., a California corporation ("TCS") and Lawrence O'Boyle "(O'Boyle"), on the one
4	hand, and the California Corporations Commissioner ("Commissioner"), on the other hand, and is
5	made with respect to the following facts:
6	RECITALS
7	A. TCS is a corporation in good standing, duly formed and existing pursuant to the laws
8	of the State of California, and authorized to conduct business in the State of California.
9	B. Lawrence O'Boyle is the President of TCS and is authorized to enter into this
10	Agreement on behalf of TCS.
11	C. Since 2002, TCS has been in the business of engaging in deferred deposit transactions
12	by offering and/or originating deferred deposit transactions (i.e. payday loans) under the trade name
13	Transpacific Currency Services. TCS principal place of business is located at 14151 Red Hill Ave.,
14	Tustin, CA 92780. TCS has six other locations throughout Orange County, California
15	D. TCS was duly licensed and issued a Deferred Deposit Permit by the California
16	Attorney General, Department of Justice from February 2003 to December 2004.
17	E. Pursuant to the passage of Assembly Bill 971 (Chapter 17, Statues of 2004), anyone
18	intending to engage in the business of deferred deposits on or after December 31, 2004, must file an
19	application with the Department of Corporations for a deferred deposit transaction license. Permits
20	issued by the Department of Justice to engage in the business of deferred deposit transactions are no
21	longer valid after December 31, 2004, jurisdiction having been transferred to the authority of the
22	Department of Corporations.
23	F. TCS received a notice from the Department of Corporations on February 10, 2005
24	indicating that a license application had not been submitted. TCS responded on February 12, 2005,
25	stating it would file the application within 30 days. On March 10, 2005, TCS and O'Boyle
26	submitted the required applications. On April 11, 2005, the Department sent a letter to TCS and
27	O'Boyle indicating that the applications were incomplete and informing O'Boyle that TCS would be
28	unable to engage in the business of deferred deposit transactions after December 31, 2004, without a

G. TCS contacted the Department between March 10, 2005 and July 18, 2005 to check on the status of the applications. The Department informed TCS that it was waiting for the fingerprint results from the Department of Justice.

H. On or about July 18, 2005, the Commissioner commenced an examination of the business activities of TCS and O'Boyle. Pursuant to that examination, the Commissioner contends that TCS and Boyle engaged in the business of deferred deposit transactions by offering and/or originating at least 2,391 deferred deposit transactions, between January 1, 2005 and July 17, 2005. TCS and/or O'Boyle have not been issued a license by the Commissioner authorizing them to engage in the business of deferred deposit transactions under the California Deferred Deposit Transaction Law ("CDDTL") (California Financial Code §§ 23000 et seq.) As a result, the Commissioner contends that TCS and O'Boyle have violated Section 23005 of the California Financial Code Section 23005 of the Californi resorting to litigation. It is the desire of the parties to resolve and settle this matter without the necessity of the resorting to litigation.
