II

On or about March 18, 2008, Valles pled nolo contendere in Tulare County of California to the crime of grand theft by embezzlement (California Penal Code section 487(a)), with respect to a mortgage loan he had brokered under his CFLL license. Grand theft is a crime involving moral turpitude, which is substantially related to the qualification, functions and duties of a person engaged in the finance lender business.

III

California Financial Code section 22169 provides in pertinent part:

- (a) The commissioner may, after appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing, by order, . . . bar from any position of employment, management, or control any finance lender, broker, or any other person, if the commissioner finds either of the following:
- (2) That the person has been convicted or pleaded nolo contendere to any crime, . . . if that crime . . . involved any offense involving dishonesty, fraud, or deceit, or any other offense reasonable related to the qualifications, functions, or duties, of a person engaged in the business in accordance with the provisions of this division.

IV

The Commissioner finds, by reason of the foregoing, that Valles has been convicted of grand theft, a crime involving dishonesty, fraud, or deceit, and reasonably related to the qualifications, functions or duties of a person engaged in the finance lender business.

Therefore, the Commissioner asserts that he is justified under California Financial Code Section 22169 in barring Valles from any position of employment, management or control of any finance lender and/or broker.

WHEREFORE, the Commissioner prays that Valles be barred from any position of employment, management or control of any finance lender and/or broker.
