- 1. On June 3, 2002, Petitioner issued an escrow agent's license to West Escrow, Inc., a California corporation, ("West Escrow" or "Respondent") pursuant to the Escrow Law. Petitioner authorized West Escrow to engage in business as an escrow agent within the State of California under that license. The license is currently valid and unrevoked. Respondent's principal place of business was 315 S. Beverly Drive, Suite 515, Beverly Hills, California.
- 2. Angie West ("Ms. West") is, and was at all times relevant herein, the president, director, escrow manager, and sole shareholder of West Escrow.
- 3. West Exchange, Inc. ("West Exchange" or "accommodator") is a wholly-owned company of Ms. West and was the accommodator employed by West Escrow in all Internal Revenue Code section 1031 exchange transactions for West Escrow customers. On or about March 2, 2009, the California Secretary of State suspended West Exchange for its failure to pay state taxes.
- 4. On or about November 14, 2008, Petitioner, by and through his staff, began a special examination of the books and records of West Escrow. The special examination commenced after the Department of Corporations ("Department") learned that Ms. West had passed away from a possible drug overdose, which left West Escrow without any control person or escrow manager. The special examination revealed that West Escrow and West Exchange, by and through Ms. West, had caused a trust account shortage of at least $528,934.38 for the period ending November 17, 2008, in violation of California Code of Regulations, title 10, section 1738.1.
- 5. The special examination further revealed that West Escrow, by and through Ms. West, had wrongfully transferred trust funds in the amount of $39,300.00 from the trust account of West Escrow into the general account and/or payroll accounts of West Escrow between March 2008 and August 2008 in violation of Code section 17409. The commingling of trust funds is prohibited because of the serious risk of misuse and loss. Thereafter, the wrongfully transferred trust funds were used to pay the operating and/or payroll expenses of West Escrow in violation of Code section 17414, subdivision (a)(1), and California Code of Regulations, title 10, sections 1738 and 1738.2.
- 6. Furthermore, in connection with the trust account shortages, West Escrow, by and through Ms. West, falsified escrow records by creating false receipts during the period July 2007 through July 2008 in violation of Code section 17414, subdivision (a)(2).

- 7. In addition, the Petitioner discovered that West Escrow had failed:
- to perform its monthly bank reconciliations on the trust account since at least April (a) 30, 2008, in violation of Code section 17404 and California Code of Regulations, title 10, section 1732.2:
- (b) to comply with the bonding requirements of Code section 17202 in that effective October 19, 2008, Bond Number 1006155 issued by Accredited Surety and Casualty Company in favor of West Escrow had expired and no replacement bond was obtained in violation of section 17202 of the Code;
 - to pay its annual assessment as was required by Code section 17207; (c)
- (d) to employ an escrow manager, in that on or about November 12, 2008, Ms. West, West Escrow's president, director, escrow manager, and sole shareholder, passed away leaving West Escrow without any escrow manager in violation of Code section 17200.8; and
- (e) to report employees to the Commissioner, in that it employed several individuals in its escrow business without having first notified the Petitioner of their employment in violation of Code section 17419 and California Code of Regulations, title 10, section 1726.
- 8. During the course of the Department's special examination it was also discovered, in connection with the trust account shortage described above in paragraph 4., that on or about July 10, 2007, West Escrow, by and through Ms. West, disbursed, without authorization, $440,132.03 in trust account funds for a West Exchange Internal Revenue Code section 1031 exchange transaction. The disbursement should have been made from West Exchange's general account. As of October 31, 2008, West Exchange's general account held a balance of $19,252.22. West Exchange has failed to return all trust funds and other monies to West Escrow.
- (a) On or about October 26, 2007, West Escrow, by and through Ms. West, disbursed, without authorization, $18,825.00 in trust account funds to the West Exchange general account. The disbursement was unauthorized because there was no signed escrow instruction authorizing the disbursement. The disbursal of West Escrow trust account funds caused a shortage in the trust account of $18,825.00.
 - Finally, on or about August 28, 2008, West Escrow, by and through Olivia Pena, (b)

West Escrow's senior escrow officer, deposited a buyer's check, check number 1994, into West Exchange's general account. Check number 1994 should have been deposited into West Escrow's trust account, creating a trust shortage of $36,000.00.

- 9. The transfers of trust funds between West Escrow's and West Exchange's accounts are of such nature and duration that it is impossible to complete a reconciliation of West Escrow's trust account and obtain the exact shortage therein without complete access and control over West Exchange's books, records, and accounts.
- 10. In that Ms. West has passed away, Petitioner has been unable to make a demand upon West Escrow to cure the trust account shortage and Petitioner is not aware of any assets of West Escrow available to cure the trust account shortage.
- 11. Petitioner determined that the manner in which West Escrow was conducting its business was unsafe and injurious, and on November 19, 2008, issued West Escrow an Order to Discontinue Escrow Activities Pursuant to Financial Code Section 17415.
- 12. The inability of West Escrow to cure the aforementioned defects caused Petitioner, on March 19, 2009, to issue a Demand For and Order Taking Possession of the Trust Accounts and Escrow Records of West Escrow Pursuant to Financial Code Section 17621. The Order was necessary to offer any possible protection to the escrow customers of West Escrow.
- 13. Pursuant to the Order, the Commissioner took possession of the trust accounts and existing escrow records of West Escrow on March 19, 2009.
- 14. Pursuant to Code section 17622, West Escrow had ten (10) days after the taking to apply to the superior court for an order to enjoin further proceedings by Petitioner. The ten (10) days provided by Code section 17622 have expired, and there has been no action commenced by West Escrow to contest the actions of the Commissioner described in paragraph 13., above.
- 15. The Petitioner believes that a receivership is the only feasible manner in which to further pursue the avenues necessary to identify all trust claimants and thereafter distribute trust monies given that insufficient West Escrow assets exist from which to otherwise pursue the necessary avenues.
 - 16. Pursuant to Code section 17636, the Petitioner is authorized to petition the superior court for the appointment of a receiver to wind up the affairs of a licensee after having taken possession of the licensee.

- 17. The Petitioner submits that the appointment of a receiver by this Court over West Escrow is necessary to properly wind up the trust account affairs of West Escrow and to provide the greatest protection possible to the customers of West Escrow. Furthermore, a situation exists wherein irreparable harm will be suffered by the public unless and until a receiver is appointed over West Escrow in order to wind up its trust account affairs.
- 18. Pursuant to section 11180 of the Government Code, the Commissioner, as head of the Department of Corporations, may make investigations and prosecute actions concerning all matters relating to the business activities and subjects under the jurisdiction of the Department; and violations of any law or rule or order of the Department. (Govt. Code, § 11180, subd. (a)-(b).) As stated previously, West Escrow is a licensee of the Commissioner; the head of the Department of Corporations. Pursuant to Code section 17636 the Commissioner may petition for the appointment of a receiver to liquidate the affairs of a licensee once she has taken possession of the business. Further, West Escrow, with the aid, assistance, and benefit to West Exchange, has committed serious violations of the Escrow Law that have resulted in a shortage to the escrow trust account. Pursuant to Government Code section 11180, this is sufficient cause for the Commissioner to bring an action against both West Escrow and West Exchange.
- Escrow's president, director, escrow manager, and sole shareholder, Ms. West, and was used exclusively to handle all Internal Revenue Code section 1031 exchange transactions for West Escrow customers. Accordingly, the Commissioner finds that West Escrow and West Exchange have completely ignored their separate corporate existence in accomplishing their wrongdoing. West Escrow has been called upon to fulfill the obligations of West Exchange to its customers by using West Escrow's trust account funds. Thus, West Escrow and West Exchange are alter egos of one another. (See First Western Bank and Trust Co. v. Bookasta (1968) 267 Cal.App.2d 910, 915.) The doctrine of alter ego is an equitable one. California courts frequently use it to achieve a just and equitable result. (NEC Electronics v. Hurt (1989) 208 Cal.App.3d 772, 777.) Courts will disregard the corporate form and "pierce the corporate veil" whenever necessary to prevent fraud and achieve equity. (Lyons v. Stevenson (1977) 65 Cal.App.3d 595, 606.)

20. In this instance, West Exchange was unjustly enriched by West Escrow's violations of the Escrow Law by and through the assistance of West Exchange. The transference of funds between West Escrow and West Exchange was according to the financial difficulties and necessities of West Exchange. West Exchange was the beneficiary of the wrongdoing described herein at the expense of West Escrow's escrow principals. Equity demands this situation be remedied. This can only be accomplished by placing West Escrow and West Exchange under common receivership.

Wherefore, the Petitioner prays:

- A. This Court issue an order naming Peter A. Davidson of the Law Firm of Ervin, Cohen & Jessup, LLP as the receiver over the escrow trust funds of West Escrow, including, but not limited to, the escrow trust account(s) and any indemnity funds paid by Escrow Agents' Fidelity Corporation pursuant to an anticipated proof of claim filing, any bond or insurance policy maintained by West Escrow or which it is a beneficiary of, and all bank and escrow records pertinent thereto, and the books and records pertaining to accommodator transactions, all bank accounts and banking records of West Exchange (collectively "trust property"), whether directly or indirectly, owned beneficially or otherwise by, or in the possession, custody or control of West Escrow, West Exchange, or Ms. West, or to which West Escrow, West Exchange, or Ms. West, has any right of possession, custody or control, irrespective of whomsoever holds such property, in order to obtain an adequate accounting of the trust property and trust liabilities; secure a marshaling of such property; and to forthwith begin winding up and liquidating the trust property affairs of West Escrow in accord with the provisions of the Escrow Law, and for said order appointing such receiver to further provide that:
- (1) The receiver prior to entry upon the duties described herein, take an oath to faithfully perform the duties of a receiver and to observe all of the instructions of this Court;
 - (2) The receiver is authorized, empowered and directed:
- (a) To review, observe, discover and make notes regarding all the trust property of, or in the possession of West Escrow and West Exchange, wherever situated, including all trust accounts of West Escrow in financial depositary institutions, all bank accounts of West Exchange in financial depositary institutions, and of any other trust property in which West Escrow and West Exchange have an interest regardless by whom it may be held on an ongoing basis pursuant to this Court's order;

- (b) To undertake an independent review into the financial condition of the trust property and escrow and accommodator transactions of West Escrow and West Exchange and render a report within 90 days reflecting the existence and value of all trust property subject to the review, observation and/or discovery by the receiver and of the extent of the trust liabilities, both those claimed by others to exist and those which the receiver believes to be the legal trust obligations of West Escrow, and any further information the receiver believes may assist in an equitable disposition of this matter, and to include in its report the receiver's opinion regarding the ability of West Escrow to meet its trust obligations, and his recommendation regarding the best method of distributing the trust property to the owners thereof;
- (c) To file within 30 days of his qualification and appointment hereunder, a preliminary inventory of all trust property of which he shall then have reviewed, observed and/or discovered pursuant to this Court's order. Additionally, the receiver is to file one or more supplemental inventories when and if he shall subsequently come into knowledge of additional items appropriate to said inventory;
- (d) To retain and employ such attorney(s) to assist, advise and represent the receiver in the performance of his duties and responsibilities as the Court may approve upon written application of the receiver;
- (e) To retain and employ LoBuglio & Sigman as his accountants, and such other such persons, clerical and professional, to perform such tasks as may be necessary to aid the receiver in the performance of his duties and responsibilities;
- (f) To be the sole signator on all trust bank accounts and bank accounts of West Escrow and West Exchange;
 - (g) To bring such proceedings as are necessary to enforce the provisions hereof;
 - (h) To bring such actions as are necessary to modify the provisions hereof;
 - (i) To make such payments and disbursements from the trust property so taken into custody, control, and possession of the receiver or otherwise received by him, as may be necessary and advisable in discharging his duties as receiver;

- (j) To preserve trust property;
- (k) To institute, prosecute, defend, compromise, intervene and become a party either in his own name or in the name of West Escrow and/or West Exchange to such suits, actions, or proceedings as may be necessary for the protection, maintenance, recoupment or preservation of the trust property of West Escrow and West Exchange and their escrow and accommodator parties, with prior court approval; and
- (1) To divert, take possession of and secure all mail of West Escrow and West Exchange, in order to screen such mail for correspondence relating to the trust property, returning non-property mail to the legal heirs of Ms. West, the president, director, escrow manager, and sole shareholder of West Escrow and West Exchange, and to effect a change in the rights to use any and all post office boxes and other mail collection facilities used by West Escrow and West Exchange.
- B. The receiver is hereby vested with, and is authorized, directed, and empowered to exercise, all of the powers of West Escrow's and West Exchange's officers and directors or persons who exercise similar powers and perform similar duties, with respect to the trust property, whose authority is hereby suspended; and West Escrow's and West Exchange's officers, agents, employees, representatives, directors, successors in interest, attorneys in fact and all persons acting in the concert or participating with them, are hereby divested of, restrained and barred from exercising any of the powers herein vested in this receiver.
- C. Any local, state or federal law enforcement and regulatory agency having jurisdiction over matters relating to West Escrow's and West Exchange's business shall be entitled to review, without exception, all reports of the receiver and all books, records, and files on West Escrow and West Exchange in the possession of the receiver at any time during normal business hours, and to make any abstract or copies of said documents as it desires.
- D. West Escrow and West Exchange and their respective officers, directors, agents, servants, employees, successors, assigns, affiliates, and other persons or entities under their control and all persons or entities in active concert or participation with them, and each of them, to turn over to the receiver records, documentation, charts and/or descriptive material, which relate, directly or indirectly, to the trust property of West Escrow and West Exchange or otherwise belonging to their escrow and accommodator transaction parties, now held by West Escrow and West Exchange or any of them.

- E. This Court will retain jurisdiction of this action in order to implement and carry out the terms of all orders and decrees that may be entered herein or to entertain any suitable application or motion by Petitioner and/or receiver for additional relief or modification of any order made herein within the jurisdiction of this Court.
- F. During the pendency of this receivership, except by leave of court, all parties to escrows held by West Escrow and accommodator transactions held by West Exchange and any other persons seeking relief of any kind, in law or in equity, from West Escrow and West Exchange relating to the trust property, and all others acting on behalf of any such parties or other persons including sheriffs, marshals, servants, agents and employees are restrained from:
 - (1) Commencing, prosecuting, continuing or enforcing any suit or proceeding;
- (2) Executing or issuing or causing the execution or issuance of any court attachment, subpoena, replevin, execution or other process for the purpose of impounding or taking possession of or interfering with or creating or enforcing a lien upon any trust property owned or in the possession of West Escrow and West Exchange or its affiliates, or the receiver appointed herein, wherever situated;

- G. At such time as the financial condition of the property has been ascertained by the receiver and at such time as the trust property has been marshaled and all trust liabilities have been
