

You need to define what the difference between a lease and a loan is ... My general take on this new law is that it is not needed and just adds to the already over regulated loan business in California making our state less able to compete ... Also want to be able to change email addresses for your licensed financial lenders any time we want to ... That is basic common sense ... Jon McCurdy Data Sales of California