STATE OF CALIFORNIA BUSINESS, CONSUMER SERVICES AND HOUSING AGENCY DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION

TO: Dedric Joseph Robinson aka DJ Robinson FreeRoading, Inc. c/o National Registered Agents, Inc. 1209 Orange Street Wilmington, Delaware 19801

DESIST AND REFRAIN ORDER

(For violations of sections 25110 and 25401 of the Corporations Code)

The California Commissioner of Financial Protection and Innovation, finds that:

- 1. At all relevant times, FreeRoading, Inc. (FreeRoading) is, or was, a Delaware corporation with its principal address at 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, Delaware 19801.
- 2. At all relevant times, Dedric Joseph Robinson aka DJ Robinson (Robinson) is, or was, the president and owner of FreeRoading.
- 3. Beginning at least as early as November 2018, Robinson, on behalf of FreeRoading, offered or sold securities, in the form of investment contracts described as "Simple Agreement for Future Equity Financing of FreeRoading, Inc.," in California. Robinson and FreeRoading offered and sold securities to investors in an affinity fraud targeting members of a veteran business group located in the Los Angeles County.
- 4. Robinson and FreeRoading obtained investment money by soliciting Californians and promising rates of return of up to "ten times" the amount invested by each investor and payable within six or twelve months of their investment. Robinson and FreeRoading offered and sold securities to at least two California investors raising over $20,000.00.
- 5. The purported purpose of the securities offering was to raise funds from investors, which would purportedly be used to create a start-up company that would develop a "FreeRoading, ride share app."
 - 6. Robinson told investors that their investment would be used to "launch and operate an innovative peer-to-peer ride sharing mobile app platform that will give people who are travelling the ability to sell their empty seats to other individuals needing rides." Robinson claimed that the "FreeRoading rideshare app is a unique platform combining the features of Priceline, AirBnB and Facebook for consumer vehicles ... giving users the ability to meet and travel with people who share similar interests while simultaneously turning empty seats into cash for drivers."

7. In attempts to raise additional capital from investors, in or about November 2019, Robinson and FreeRoading offered investors new "Simple Agreements for Future Equity (SAFE)" which stated:

In order to continue developing that infrastructure and quickly bring the app to market, we are raising a modest amount of additional capital through the issuance of Simple Agreements for Future Equity (the "SAFEs") to existing FreeRoading stockholders. We have received commitments from key stockholders of at least $35,000 and intend to raise a total amount of approximately $150,000. Pursuant to this offer, each existing FreeRoading stockholder is afforded an opportunity to participate in the SAFE financing. The minimum investment in the offering is $5,000 or, in the case of stockholders who originally invested less than $5,000 in FreeRoading, $2,500.

- 8. The California investors stated that after they invested in FreeRoading, Robinson suddenly became too busy to provide the investors updates on the startup and became unresponsive. Months went by without any progress or updates, and soon it became clear that Robinson was no longer actively pursuing the startup company. To date, the investors have not received the returns on their investment as promised or their capital investment back.
- 9. These securities in the form of investment contracts in FreeRoading were offered or sold in this state in issuer transactions. The Department of Financial Protection and Innovation has not issued a permit or other form of qualification authorizing any person to offer or sell the securities referred to herein in this state, nor is FreeRoading exempt from the qualification requirement.
- 10. In connection with the offer or sale of these securities, Robinson, on behalf of FreeRoading, made the following untrue statements of material facts:
- a. Investors were promised a return on investment up to "ten times" the amount each investor invested and payable within six to twelve months or upon demand by investors, when no such return was paid to the investors.

- b. Robinson represented to investors that their money would be used to develop a FreeRoading ride share app when in reality, Robinson used investor funds for his personal expenses.
- c. Robinson failed to disclose to investors that in or about October 17, 2014, the Alberta Securities Commission in Canada issued an Order directing Robinson to among other prohibitions, "cease trading in or purchasing securities for 20 years to and including 24 July 2033..." and "resign from all positions he holds as a director or officer of any issuer, registrant or investment fund manager, and he is prohibited from becoming or acting as a director or officer (or both) of any issuer, registrant or investment fund manager, for 20 years to an including 24 July, 2033, ..."

Based on the foregoing findings, the Commissioner of Financial Protection and Innovation is of the opinion that the investment contracts offered or sold by Dedric Joseph Robinson aka DJ Robinson and FreeRoading, Inc., are securities subject to qualification under the Corporate Securities Law of 1968 and are being or have been offered or sold without first being qualified in violation of Corporations Code section 25110.

Pursuant to Corporations Code section 25532, Dedric Joseph Robinson aka DJ Robinson and FreeRoading, Inc., are ordered to desist and refrain from the further offer and sale of securities in California, including but not limited to investment contracts, unless and until qualification has been made under the Corporate Securities Law of 1968, or unless exempt.

Further, the California Commissioner of Financial Protection and Innovation is of the opinion that Dedric Joseph Robinson aka DJ Robinson and FreeRoading, Inc. offered or sold securities in this state by means of written or oral communications which included untrue statements of material facts or omitted to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, in violation of Corporations Code section 25401.

Pursuant to Corporations Code section 25532, Dedric Joseph Robinson aka DJ Robinson and FreeRoading, Inc. are hereby ordered to desist and refrain from offering or selling or buying or offering to buy any security in the State of California, including but not limited to investment contracts, by means of any written or oral communication which includes an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

Pursuant to Corporations Code section 25403, subdivision (b), any person that knowingly provides substantial assistance to another person in violation of any provision of this division or any rule or order thereunder shall be deemed to be in violation of that provision, rule, or order to the same extent as the person to whom the assistance was provided.

This Order is necessary, in the public interest, for the protection of investors and consistent with the purposes, policies and provisions of the Corporate Securities Law of 1968.
