RE: PRO 05-21 Invitation For Comments On Proposed Second Rulemaking Under the Debt Collection Licensing Act

Ladies and Gentlemen,

This law firm respectfully submits the following comments and questions in response to the above-referenced invitation ("Invitation") issued by the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation (DFPI).

Scope of the Debt Collection Licensing Act ("DCLA")

The Invitation contains, among other questions, the following:

The DCLA defines several terms in Financial Code section 100002, including "debt," "debt collection," "person," "consumer credit transaction," "debt collector," and "debt buyer." Which of these definitions, if any, are unclear? Are the definitions of these terms the same as those in the Rosenthal Act and FDBPA?

We request clarification regarding the following:

 Is residential rent collection a consumer credit transaction? Based on a review of court decisions, residential rent collection is not a consumer credit transaction. (See, e.g., Picazo v. Tirey, 2018 WL 1583228, at *6 (S.D. Cal. Apr. 2, 2018); Phillips v. Archstone Simi Valley LLC, 2016 WL 7444550, at *5 (C.D. Cal. Dec. 15, 2016); Ortiz v. Lyon Management Group, Inc. (2007) 157 Cal.App.4th 604; Leasure v. Willmark Communities, Inc., 2013 WL 6097944, at *4 (S.D. Cal. Mar. 14, 2013)) Department of Financial Protection and Innovation September 15, 2021 Page 2.

- 2. Is a licensed California attorney or law firm that regularly files unlawful detainer (eviction) actions against consumers for non-payment of rent required to obtain a debt collection license under the California Debt Collection Licensing Act (California Financial Code 100000 et seq.)?
- 3. If a law firm that regularly files unlawful detainer (eviction) actions against consumers for non-payment of rent is required to obtain a debt collection license under the California Debt Collection Licensing Act, is each attorney and/or employee in the law firm required to obtain a debt collection license?
- 4. California Civil Code Section 1788.11 states, among other things, as follows: "No debt collector shall collect or attempt to collect a consumer debt by means of the following practices: ... (f) Sending written or digital communication to the person that does not display the California license number of the collector in at least 12-point type." We request clarification regarding the following:
  - (a) Is a licensed California attorney or law firm that regularly files unlawful detainer (eviction) actions against consumers for non-payment of rent considered a debt collector within the meaning of Civil Code Section 1788.11?
  - (b) Is the filing of an unlawful detainer (eviction) action against a consumer for non-payment of rent considered attempt to collect a consumer debt within the meaning of Civil Code Section 1788.11?
  - (c) Is a licensed California attorney or law firm that regularly files unlawful detainer (eviction) actions against consumers for non-payment of rent required to place a debt collection license number on each and every document filed with the court and/or served on the consumer in connection with the unlawful detainer action?

For reference, standard forms used in unlawful detainer actions include, but are not limited to, the following court forms created by the Judicial Council of California: Civil Case Cover Sheet; Summons; Complaint-Unlawful Detainer; Plaintiff's Mandatory Cover Sheet and Supplemental Allegations-Unlawful Detainer; Prejudgment Claim of Right to Possession; Proof of Service of Summons; Form Interrogatories - Unlawful Detainer; Request for Entry of Default; Verification by Landlord Regarding Rental Assistance - Unlawful Detainer; Request/Counter-Request to Set Case for Trial; Declaration Department of Financial Protection and Innovation September 15, 2021 Page 3.

> for Default Judgment by Court; Stipulation for Entry of Judgment (Unlawful Detainer); Judgment; Writ of Execution; Request for Dismissal. Copies of these forms are attached for reference.

> Numerous other documents may be filed in an unlawful detainer action and served upon a consumer including, but not limited to, documents relating to motions (e.g., notice of motion, memorandum of points and authorities, supporting declarations and exhibits, proof(s) of service), discovery (e.g., form interrogatories, requests for admission, demand for production of documents), and trial.

- (d) If a licensed California attorney or law firm that regularly files unlawful detainer (eviction) actions against consumers for non-payment of rent is required to place a debt collection license number on documents filed with the court and/or served on the consumer in connection with the unlawful detainer action:
  - i. Will the Judicial Council of California modify court documents to provide space for attorneys to list their license number on court documents?
  - ii. How can an attorney or law firm that has not yet obtained a debt collection license comply with the requirement?
  - iii. Would an attorney or law firm be liable to the consumer under Civil Code Section 1788.30 for any document that did not include a debt collection license number?
  - iv. Could the failure to include a debt collection license number on a document be cured under Civil Code Section 1788.30(d)? If so, how?
  - v. Is there safe harbor language as to how to place the debt collection license number on documents (e.g., California Debt Collection License No. _____)?

Due to the potential difficulties in complying with requirements of Civil Code Section 1788.11 in connection with court actions, is the DFPI willing to create a safe harbor rule relating to the Civil Code Section 1788.11(f)? For example, is the DFPI willing to create a rule that: (a) Civil Code Section 1788.11(f) does not apply to pleadings and other documents filed and/or served in connection with unlawful detainer proceedings or other court actions; or (b) compliance with Civil Code Section 1788.11(f) can be accomplished with a single disclosure at the inception of the action such as in the complaint?

Sincerely,

RUZICKA, WALLACE & COUGHLIN, LLP

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers. If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party. its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Rule 3.740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3,740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties in Complex Cases. In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3,400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that CASE TYPES AND EXAMPLES Contract the case is complex.

SUMMONS (CITACIÓN JUDICIAL) UNLAWFUL DETAINER-EVICTION

(RETENCIÓN ILÍCITA DE UN INMUEBLE—DESALOJO)

FOR COURT USE ONLY (SOLO PARA USO DE LA CORTE)

NOTICE TO DEFENDANT: (AVISO AL DEMANDADO):

YOU ARE BEING SUED BY PLAINTIFF: (LO ESTÁ DEMANDANDO EL DEMANDANTE):

NOTICE! You have been sued. The court may decide against you without your being heard unless you respond within 5 days. You have 5 DAYS, not counting Saturdays and Sundays and other judicial holidays, after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff.	¡AVISO! Usted ha sido demandado. Si no responde dentro de 5 días, el tribunal puede emitir un fallo en su contra sin una audiencia. Una vez que le entreguen esta citación y papeles legales, solo tiene 5 DÍAS, sin contar sábado y domingo y otros días feriados del tribunal, para presentar una respuesta por escrito en este tribunal y hacer que se entregue una copia al demandante.
A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center ( www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp ), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court.	Una carta o una llamada telefónica no lo protege. Su respuesta por escrito tiene que estar en formato legal correcto si desea que procesen su caso en la corte. Es posible que haya un formulario que usted pueda usar para su respuesta. Puede encontrar estos formularios de la corte y más información en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.sucorte.ca.gov), en la biblioteca de leyes de su condado o en la corte que le quede más cerca. Si no presenta su respuesta a tiempo, puede perder el caso por falta de comparecencia y se le podrá quitar su sueldo, dinero y bienes sin más advertencia.
There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California Legal Services website ( www.lawhelpca.org ), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center ( www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp ), or by contacting your local court or county bar association.	Hay otros requisitos legales. Es recomendable que llame a un abogado inmediatamente. Si no conoce a un abogado, puede llamar a un servicio de remisión a abogados. Si no puede pagar a un abogado, es posible que cumpla con los requisitos para obtener servicios legales gratuitos de un programa de servicios legales sin fines de lucro. WRIT OF EXECUTION OR SALE. Your rights and duties are indicated on the accompanying Notice of Levy (form EJ-150).

WRIT OF POSSESSION OF PERSONAL PROPERTY. If the levying officer is not able to take custody of the property, the levying officer will demand that you turn over the property. If custody is not obtained following demand, the judgment may be enforced as a money judgment for the value of the property specified in the Judgment or in a supplemental order.

WRIT OF POSSESSION OF REAL PROPERTY. If the premises are not vacated within five days after the date of service on the occupant or, if service is by posting, within five days after service on you, the levying officer will remove the occupants from the real property and place the judgment creditor in possession of the property. Except for a mobile home, personal property remaining on the premises will be sold or otherwise disposed of in accordance with CCP 1174 unless you or the owner of the property pays the judgment creditor the reasonable cost of storage and takes possession of the personal property not later than 15 days after the time the judgment creditor takes possession of the premises.

EXCEPTION IF RENTAL HOUSING UNIT WAS FORECLOSED. If the residential property that you are renting was sold in a foreclosure, you have additional time before you must vacate the premises. If you have a lease for a fixed term, such as for a year, you may remain in the property until the term is up. If you have a periodic lease or tenancy, such as from month-to-month, you may remain in the property for 90 days after receiving a notice to quit. A blank form Claim of Right to Possession and Notice of Hearing (form CP10) accompanies this writ. You may claim your right to remain on the property by filling it out and giving it to the sheriff or levying officer.

EXCEPTION IF YOU WERE NOT SERVED WITH A FORM CALLED PREJUDGMENT CLAIM OF RIGHT TO POSSESSION. If you were not named in the judgment for possession and you occupied the premises on the date on which the unlawful detainer case was filed, you may object to the enforcement of the judgment against you. You must complete the form Claim of Right to Possession and Notice of Hearing (form CP10) and give it to the sheriff or levying officer. A blank form accompanies this writ. You have this right whether or not the property you are renting was sold in a foreclosure.
