INVITATION FOR COMMENTS ON DRAFT TEXT FOR PROPOSED SECOND RULEMAKING
UNDER THE DEBT COLLECTION LICENSING ACT

BACKGROUND

In September 2020, the California Legislature enacted the Debt Collection Licensing Act (“DCLA”), authorizing the Commissioner of Financial Protection and Innovation (“Commissioner”) to license, investigate, and examine debt collectors, and to enforce the Rosenthal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (“RFDCPA”) and the Fair Debt Buying Practices Act (“FDBPA”). Prior to enactment of the DCLA, debt collectors were not required to be licensed in California. The DCLA became operative on January 1, 2022.

On December 22, 2021, regulations implementing the application requirements under the DCLA became effective. On August 19, 2021, the Commissioner released an invitation to comment on an anticipated subsequent rulemaking related to the scope, annual report, and bond amount increase provisions of the DCLA. The Commissioner is now considering draft text related to the scope, annual report, and document retention requirements of the DCLA.

TIME FOR COMMENTS

The Commissioner invites interested parties to submit comments, including comments describing the potential financial impact of the draft regulations, by Monday, August 29, 2022.
